Subject(s)JJM 230, Juvenile Justice Service Plans

Youth who are eligible as a candidate for foster care and have been approved to receive prevention services under the Family First Prevention Services Act will also have a prevention plan in the Juvenile Justice Updated Services Plan (USP). Prevention plans will automatically generate into the USP when one youth participant is identified and there is a prevention plan and program begin date which coincides with the USP period.

Reason: Expansion of services through Family First Prevention Services Act, Public Law 115-123.
